FEE DISCLOSURE

City Central Realty, LLC (CCRE, LLC), located at 842B Beacon Street, Boston, MA and 344 Harvard St Brookline, MA operates as a Real Estate Brokerage Company. As such, CCRE, LLC performs the role of showing apartments and presenting applications to landlords.

Your signature below indicates you understand all of the following statements:

- I/We agree not to approach the landlord, current tenant/s, or the management company about any property shown to me by an agent employed by CCRE, LLC.
- I/We understand that when I/we complete an application for an apartment and the application is accepted by the landlord, CCRE, LLC becomes entitled to a finder's fee equal to one month's rent.
- This fee is compensation for locating apartments and professional services in connection with the rental process. A lease need not be executed, nor must occupancy be taken for this fee to be owed. If an application is denied by the landlord or the landlord cannot provide the apartment after acceptance, the finder's fee will be refunded.
- I/We understand that all applications are considered accepted unless rejected by landlord. If I/we withdraw an application after the landlord has approved it, the deposit will be retained and applied to the finder's fee.
- Because CCRE, LLC is introducing me/us to its inventory of apartments, I/we understand that if we rent an apartment shown to us by CCRE, LLC through another source, including another brokerage firm, a property owner, or management company, I/we will still be responsible for compensating CCRE, LLC with a finder's fee equal to one full month's rent.

CCRE, LLC cannot show property unless the Fee Disclosure is signed, as required by Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
